Bonjour tout le monde,

Thank you for your continued support and for questions I have received. Please be aware that all options remain on the table as we work towards finalizing the Agreement and moving forward with our tasks. If we are unable to resolve these issues promptly, the Union may be compelled to refer the matter to the conciliation officers. Given that we have provided the Employer with detailed references to the written materials for each correction and have meticulously revised and completed their "clean" version of the Agreement using track changes, it should not take them long to review the revisions. These persistent and unnecessary delays in concluding the Agreement will ultimately cause them as much difficulty as it is causing us.

En toute solidarité/In solidarity,
Geneviève

Please note that I am on sabbatical leave until 1 January 2025.
