Bonjour tout le monde,

After two weeks waiting on the Employer to respond to our most recent draft of the CA, their Lead sent me another draft with their revisions last evening. We are on it to see what they have corrected and what still remains outstanding and will update you as soon as we complete this review.

The conciliators were not successful this pas week in getting the Employer's team to agree to meet with us to finalize the document. Consequently, we are continuing to conclude these negotiations via email, which as been the main reason for the dragging out the finalizing of the Agreement. It would have taken us two days to do so immediately after our return from the strike, as it is typically done.

En toute solidarité/In Solidarity,

Geneviève

Please note that I am on sabbatical leave until 1 January 2025.
